Dear Mike,

I felt it important to let you know some of the internal feedback I have been hearing about your company. As you are aware we have always relied on Ceiling Systems as a close partner for nearly eighteen years. Your team has responded well to project challenges, specifically with scheduling. Your entire staff has always been professional and eager to accommodate project needs. This eagerness along with their knowledge of the ceiling industry makes it a great match for our projects. Please keep up the good work and I look forward to the next project.

Sincerely,
